

OAKLAND'S GREAT STREET FAIR OPENED TO PUBLIC. HORRIBLE SCENE AT THE BURNING OF A NEGRO IN DELEWARE.

EXERCISES HELD AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Prominent Citizens Take Part in the Formal Opening—Evening of the Afternoon.

The Oakland Street Fair opened at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon on a line of completeness which has never characterized any undertaking of this kind on the Pacific Coast.

There was scarcely a vacant booth among the hundreds which have been erected, and every resort which aims to afford amusement had its full complement of performers and attendant.

Such completeness proved the remarkable foresight and ability which have been displayed by Director-General Sobueter and the willingness with which his subordinates and the concessionaries have worked under his genial and good-natured management.

People who saw and marveled at the last fair of this kind in this city, will be amazed at the present spectacle. In the fair of today, there is scarcely a semblance of that of a year ago. There are no vacant quarters, no uncouth angles, no yawning spaces which had been intended for concessionaries which never came. Every place is occupied. Every structure is gracefully designed and erected and everywhere is instinct with life and beauty.

In this great intermingling of those who strive to secure trade and to attract the eyes of those who seek amusement, there is almost a bewildering babel which will, of course, become all the more interesting when the streets become thronged with people who are willing to inspect the wares of the one and inquire into the mysteries of the other.

There is a tower 150 feet high with radiating lines of electric bulbs, 6000 in number, which will glow like the stars in the azure vault at night. There are also a captive balloon, a miniature railroad with a locomotive named "Oakland," which will have a dozen tiny cars for little ones; a merry-go-round with galloping horses; the Streets of Cairo, and indeed, a hundred and one other things which will afford unalloyed pleasure for young and old for the next ten days.

During that time, the citizens of Oakland will have little need to seek elsewhere for pure entertainment, which is all the more to be appreciated because it may be enjoyed at little cost and in the open air.

UNITED OAKLAND.

The fact that Oakland is united is demonstrated wherever one turns, and under such circumstances what may be accomplished can only be imagined.

THE OPENING.

The opening exercises were held in the grand court at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and were attended by a throng of children, youths and adults which delighted the heart.

THE EXERCISES.

The exercises opened with several

GEORGE W. FRICK.

He came introductory remarks, cleverly made by George W. Frick, principal of the Cole School, chairman of the Literary Committee of the fair, who spoke as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen and My Young Friends: For many years there was a fair city facing the Golden Gate, favored with every natural advantage and possessing a cultured and refined people—a city of churches, schools and homes, but lacking in public spirit and failing to appreciate the unparalleled opportunities at its very gates.

"STIMULATE ENTERPRISE.

"Among its people were a few progressive citizens constantly endeavoring to stimulate enterprise and local pride and who preached the gospel of public spirit for the common good, but not until one year ago, through the action of a great fraternal order, was the first great object lesson taught her people of what wonderful momentum can be attained by the united and harmonious labor and gift of a body of determined working as one man for a good cause.

FAIR OF MAGNITUDE.

"Now, this afternoon, we are met to inaugurate a similar enterprise and formally open an Oakland Street Fair and Carnival, superior to the one of a

AWFUL SCENE AT BURNING

Negro Murderer Makes a Confession at Stake.

People Carry Away His Charred Bones as Relics of Event.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 23.—The natural and interesting question today is whether the authorities will take action looking toward the arrest and punishment of those who were prominent in the lynching of George White early today. That many of them are known cannot be doubted, for they were seen by thousands who witnessed the affair. It is also known that the men were invited to participate and given notice of when and where to assemble.

It is a fact that public sentiment so generally approves the lynching that it would be hard to secure the conviction of a lyncher, even if arrests were made, which is doubtful.

During the day thousands of persons went in the drizzling rain to the scene of the lynching, many of them intent upon securing ghastly relics. In this, however, they met with little success, as the burning had been so effectual as to destroy every vestige of the victim's body. The only remains were pieces of his bones.

Judge Grubb of the county court today made a public statement in which he deprecates the lynching of White and its consequent reflection upon the good name of Delaware. Judge Grubb also explained the action of the court in refusing to call a special session of the grand jury for the indictment of Miss Bishop's murderer. He says the trial would have been attended by such public clamor and prejudice that a fair trial would have been impossible, and the court would have been compelled to grant the motion of the prisoner's counsel for a change of venue.

Horrible Affair.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 23.—All is quiet in this community today following the horrible lynching of George White, Helen Bishop's confessed slayer, at an early hour this morning. Of the large mob that overpowered the authorities, stormed the Newcastle county workhouse and dragged from a cell the trembling wretch and burned him at the stake, the identity of only one is publicly known. That person is Peter Smith, a boy of twelve years, who fell when the workhouse guards fired a volley into the ranks of the attacking mob. The lad who was shot in the back is seriously wounded and will probably die.

Work of Vengeance.

After the mob had completed its work of vengeance, the body of the negro ravisher and murderer was left chained to the stake with the fire burning all

TRONDHJEM, Norway, June 23.—The Zeigler Polar expedition sailed today on the steam whaler America for Franz Josefland, where the expedition will pass the winter and whence the expedition will be sent out with dog sledges. around it and the members of the lynching party went home. A rain, which began falling later extinguished the fire, and at daylight the charred body still hung limp in plain sight of passersby.

Public sentiment here, so far as expressed, appears to approve the lynching of White and it is not believed there will be any arrests.

Murderer's Confession.

White's confession, made just before the torch was applied to the pile of oil-soaked bushes around him, was an admission of even more than has been charged against him. He is stated to have said:

"I was sent by Mr. Woodward to the cornfield to try some corn. I saw Mr. Woodward's daughter and intended to assault her, but a couple of men came along and I did not disturb her. Then I saw the Bishop girl and I followed her. I seized her and asked her if she had any money she would give me to let her go. She gave me sixty cents. Then I again seized her and she cried. 'Please don't hurt me.' I choked her and accomplished my purpose. Then I asked her if she was going to tell on me. She said she was. I gave her a kick in the throat with my knife and asked

BATTLE OVER A RECEIVER

BIG CONTEST OPENS IN THE TRENTON COURT IN NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., June 22.—Argument was commenced in the United States Circuit Court today before Judge Kirkpatrick in the case of the application of Roland R. Conklin and others for the appointment of a receiver for the United States Shipbuilding Company. Each side had a big array of counsel.

The case was opened by Mr. Woolman, for the complainant, reading at length the bill of complaint, the substance of which has already been published. During the reading, Mr. Woolman brought out the facts that Charles M. Schwab had received for the Bethlehem Steel Works $30,000,000, made up as follows, $10,000,000 preferred stock, $10,000,000 common stock and $10,000,000 of collateral bonds.

Judge Kirkpatrick asked what the collateral consisted of and was told that it embraced two mortgages, one on the Bethlehem plant and another on the shipbuilding company's entire property. He made a humorous comment to the effect that Schwab was well secured.

When the reading of the bill of complaint was completed, Mr. Woolman began reading the exhibits in the case, one of which was a statement issued by the Republic Trust Company, containing a very flattering statement of the company's condition. Mr. Corbin objected to this exhibit as not properly before the court. Judge Kirkpatrick remarked that the statement seemed to favor the defendant, but that, at any rate, it was immaterial, as what the court wanted to get at was the company's present condition and not what somebody else thought or said was its condition some months ago.

WILL NOT GIVE IN TO MEN.

RANDSBURG COMPANY WILL FIGHT TO THE END.

BAKERSFIELD, June 22.—C. A. Burcham, one of the owners of the Yellow Aster mine at Randsburg, was here last night on his way to San Francisco. He was emphatic in the statement that the company will not give in to the demands of the men for higher wages, and says that the town of Randsburg is in a bad condition so far as business is concerned.

"The Yellow Aster people will not increase the miner's wages," he said, "and any reports to the contrary are false. The statement that the Yellow Aster property was for sale is an error. There will be no attempt on the part of the owners to 'give in' to the strikers. I can say that the merchants will hesitate a long time before rebuilding the property which was recently destroyed by fire in Randsburg, which was unfortunately started by the carelessness of a woman who was smoking cigarettes in the Orpheum Theater."

"Should there have been no strike, it is possible that the town of Randsburg would now be well on the way to renewed activity."

BUNCO MEN ARE IN TROUBLE.

THEY MUST ANSWER BEFORE A JURY IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—For their share in the bunco footrace game in which Herman Grunewald, the baker, was induced to part with $2500, Ira Pearl Wilkerson, husband of Claude Amber, the actress, and himself a theatrical man, who acted as stakeholder; C. C. Lee, Bert Campbell, Elias Brown, and D. H. Fletcher, the principals in the transaction, must answer before a jury in the Superior Court.

They were held this morning by Police Judge Conlan, bail being fixed at $5000 bonds, or $2500 cash in each case.

LITTLE CHILD TERRIBLY BURNED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—While playing with matches today, Lillian Rhodie, 4 years of age, set fire to her clothing and was terribly burned. Her clothing was entirely consumed and her body scorched and blistered from head to knees. It is not believed that she can recover.

DECLARED INSOLVENT.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Vice-Chancellor Stevenson in Jersey City today declared insolvent the Asphent Company of America and granted the application for an order restraining the company from doing business.

SPDALLA, Mo., June 22.—The condition of ex-General Manager Fry of the Santa Fe is not so favorable today. He passed a bad night.

Always alike — Schilling's Best — and the prices always alike, at your grocer's. Moneyback; always alike.

APPOINTMENTS BY GOVERNOR.

NAMES OF NEW BANK COMMISSION NOT YET GIVEN OUT.

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—Governor Pardee today made the following appointments:

Paul W. Bennett of Kern County to be Superior Judge under a law passed by the recent legislature creating the position of another Superior Judge in that county.

F. C. Chinn, of Sacramento; H. S. Cain, of San Francisco; W. H. Hare of Monterey; to be members of the Board of Examiners in Optometry. This board was created by the last legislature for the examination of those wishing to practice as opticians in this State.

H. K. Kron, of Santa Cruz, to be a trustee of the California Redwood Park vice, R. E. Kenna, resigned.

P. H. Jensen of Trinity County, Supervisor of the Third District, vice Henry Hutchins, deceased.

Thomas E. Birner and James McCormick, directors of the Twenty-ninth Agricultural District, vice themselves, terms expired.

SYMPATHY FOR WOMEN.

BOOKBINDERS ACROSS THE BAY GO ON A STRIKE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—San Francisco Bookbinders' Union, Local No. 31, with a membership of nearly 200 went on strike today as a movement in sympathy with the Women's Binders' Union, which quit work three weeks ago to enforce demands for the adoption of a new wage scale.

Altogether, there are now about 600 biliary employees out of work, and it is said that if the employing firms do not shortly adjust matters with the striking women and men, that the printers, compositors and lithographers will also be called out in sympathy with the Women's Union.

CHIEF STOREY IS COMING.

WILL TAKE CHARGE OF THE NEW LINE FOR SANTA FE.

TOPEKA, June 22.—W. T. Storey, chief engineer of the Santa Fe system, has been ordered to California to take charge of a new line that the Santa Fe is building north from San Francisco. He will be absent several months. His successor will be C. A. Morse, chief engineer of the Eastern grand division.

DENIS COMPANY IS INSOLVENT.

HARD FIGHT IS BEING MADE IN THE TRENTON COURT.

TRENTON, June 22.—When Mr. Woolman had concluded reading the bill of complaint and the accompanying affidavits in the Trenton ship building receivership, Attorney-General McCarty rose to read the answer and also the affidavit of Louis Nixon, the president, and A. C. Gary, secretary of the company. The answer in the main is a general denial of the allegations in the bill. It denies absolutely that there was any insolvency, and states the company was able to meet its obligations. It was stated that no arrangement had been made whereby bonds were to be issued on account of the Bethlehem plant; that the plant was not separately acquired; that it was included in the general purchase, and that the promoter was neither Nixon nor Schwab, but John W. Young; that the value paid was a matter of judgment and that good judgment had been exercised in the purchase. It was denied that any excessive prices had been paid, and the company denied that it had made any exaggerated statement as to the company's condition.

The company denied absolutely any responsibility for the statement put out by the Republic Trust Company. The statement given the New York Stock Exchange, it was asserted, was given in good faith, while containing some errors that were afterwards discovered and were immaterial. It was denied also that the company was under control of Schwab, or that there had been any understanding between Nixon and Schwab along the lines introduced in the bill of complaint.

CHAS. H. LOVELL CLOSING UP ESTATE.

The matter of the application for the distribution of the estate of the late Herman Tubbs came up for hearing in the Superior Court this morning. The estate, which is valued at $175,000, was ordered distributed. One half goes to the widow and one-half to the mother of the deceased. Charles H. Lovell was attorney for the estate.

SULTAN GIVES TROUBLE.

BRITISH COMPELLED TO FIGHT IN WEST AFRICAN FIELD.

LONDON, June 22.—The former Sultan of Sokoto is causing the British officials trouble in Liberia. A force of 130 West African troops in the middle of May unsuccessfully attacked the former Sultan, who was in command of a large force in the walled town of Durra, about 200 miles from Kame. The British were obliged to retire after losing four men killed and sixty wounded. The enemy's losses were estimated at 300 men killed or wounded. Reinforcements are being sent to the British.

A British gunboat has been ordered to Garway, on the Liberian Coast, in consequence of the recent landing of British and French steamers which have run ashore there.

ATTORNEYS HAVE A TILT.

MOORE AND LIVERNASH PASS A FEW LIVELY WORDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The hearings were resumed at 11 o'clock in the Rialto building before Commissioner Murasky in the controversy existing between the United Railroads and its employees.

The proceedings were enlivened a few moments by a tilt between Attorneys Livernash and Moore. Mr. Livernash stated that he thought Moore was using brutality in his handling of witnesses and Mr. Moore resented the imputation.

The testimony of the witnesses all went to show that the cost of living was higher now than last year.

WILL TRY TO SETTLE STRIKE.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, June 22.—Governor Cummins and State Labor Commissioner Brigham arrived here today and conferred with the city and county authorities and later with representatives of the strikers and street car company in any effort to settle the strike.

BRINGS SUIT ON WINING CLAIM.

TITLE TO PROPERTY TO BE SETTLED BY THE COURT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—A suit to acquire title to certain mining property known as the Pacer Mining Claim in Sierra county, was filed in the United States Circuit Court today.

The action, originally begun in the Superior Court of Sierra county, is taken by O. J. McCoy, Evan Jones, J. F. Carruthers, Charles G. Benning, Owen Owens and William G. Owens against the Balsam Mining and Milling Company.

Complainants allege that the defendants are in possession of the property and refuse to give up possession and ask that the court adjudge them the owners of the claim.

BULLET WIDE OF THE MARK.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Because he was despondent and would not make his troubles known to anyone, William Fitzgerald shot himself this morning. He aimed at his heart, but the bullet went wide of its mark and he will be saved.

Mrs. Irving C. Lewis, Master Philip Lewis, Miss Charlotte Morgan and Miss Alice Conklin left this morning for a six week's outing at Independence Lake.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The directors' meeting of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, scheduled for today, will not be held, according to Chairman Osmond, who arrived here from Denver today. Mr. Osmond declined to discuss the affairs of the company or make a statement concerning its financial condition. Colorado fuel had declined 2-1/4 in the stock market up to noon today.

TURNED ON THE GAS AND DIED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Henry Loe, a bookkeeper, living with his wife at 125 Page street, turned on the gas this morning and died soon afterward. Dependancy was the cause.

WHEELMEN ARE ACTIVE.

The Oakland wheelmen will have a booth at the coming Street Fair for the benefit of their association. Roller races will be run, both relays and singles, for which fine prizes will be offered. The leading clubs on both sides of the bay have signified their intention of participating. The boys have secured space for a tent on Allice street near Eleventh. The local wheelmen are going to make a great effort to annoy some of the special prizes to be given for the Fourth of July events.

PURCHASE FRANCHISE.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 22.—A News special from Sioux City states that the Business Men's Association of that city has purchased the Kansas City franchise in the Western League and that the first series of games to be played at Sioux City will begin July 6th. A. B. Beal is one of the promoters of the deal.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Grand Jury which has been investigating postal affairs today returned an indictment against August W. Machen, Dillon B. Groff, Samuel J. Groff, George E. Lorenz, and Martha J. Lorenz, the two latter being residents of Toledo, Ohio.

As previously stated in these dispatches, the specific charge is conspiracy to defraud the Government.

The indictment is based on section 5440 of the revised statutes, which provides a penalty of $10,000 or two years imprisonment or both, in the discretion of the court.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—There are twelve counts to the indictment found today, each of which sets out substantially the same as those found previously against Machen and the Groffs.

The first count of the present indictment, which relates to the conspiracy charge, sets forth that on June 29, 1900, in the District of Columbia, Lorenz, Mrs. Lorenz, Machen and the Groff brothers conspired, combined, conspired and agreed to defraud the United States Government of its monies by the following arrangement:

Machen should advise and recommend to the First Assistant Postmaster-General the purchase from the Groff brothers of a large number of the Groff fasteners for mail boxes at $1.25 each, and should procure payment therefor, up to which the Groff brothers should retain 60 per cent of such payment, or 75 cents for each fastener, and the Groff brothers should then pay to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz, either or both, the remaining 40 per cent, which was to be "converted, appropriated and applied to the use" of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz.

The indictment says that this agreement was carried out by Machen on June 30 recommending the purchase of 6000 fasteners at the price mentioned; that the Groff brothers on the same date presented a bill for 6000 fasteners at the price mentioned; that on September 13, 1900, the same year Machen recommended to the First Assistant Postmaster-General the payment of that bill and that the Groff brothers, having their special September 22 of that year received from the United States $75,000 in payment of the bill; Dillon B. Groff, on October 20 of the same year, paid $3,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz.

The indictment found, was given by Walter S. Mayer, Paul Williams and Joseph F. Farrell and Theodore W. Warner and William R. Lewis the two latter being bank men.

The Groff brothers and their counsel and the counsel for Machen were in court when the indictment was returned. Machen was not present. It was announced that neither Machen nor the Groffs would be re-arrested, also that they would not be required to give new bond.

Assistant District Attorney Taggart announced that the investigation into postal affairs by the Grand jury will continue, but that the indictments presented today complete the work of his office so far as the Grand jury has acted.

We have a complete stock of them—every model made—from the kind that takes a picture 2 1/2 inches square and sells for $1.00, up to one that takes a picture 5 x 7 carrying a Goerz lens and Voluta shutter and worth about a hundred dollars. If you have a camera we would like to have you read what we have to say.

About Developing

When a customer entrusts films or plates to us for development, we realize at once that we have accepted a responsibility.

We realize that aside from the first cost of material, he has often times been to great expense, perhaps accompanied by painstaking care and even personal hardship to secure his pictures; and we feel that he is entitled to have every detail brought out from each individual exposure. To this end we have spared no expense or thought in the perfection of our facilities and methods for handling this work. We have personally inspected the largest of the Eastern establishments where developing and printing are done. We keep in touch with the recognized authorities on development and avail ourselves of such new methods as are of established merit. The results are most gratifying. The work is nowhere handled any better, and our business grows and grows and grows.

OFFER OF AID TO WILL NOT ACT ON LANG. FRANCHISE.

PROPOSITION TO ALLOW HIM TO RUN TO LIMIT OF HIS LICENSE.

The long drawn out fight against the granting of a saloon license to C. Lang at 605 Park avenue, near its junction with Twenty-third street, came up again in the Council last night, when the following resolution, reciting the facts of the case, and virtually allowing Lang to finish his year's license was introduced:

"Whereas, The City Council, did on March 28, 1903, adopt a resolution No. 23089, granting to C. Lang permission to apply to the Tax Collector of the City of Oakland for a license to carry on and conduct a saloon and the business of selling and furnishing spirituous malt or fermented liquors and wines at 605 Park avenue, in the City of Oakland, in compliance with the written application of said C. Lang, filed on the 15th day of March, 1903; and

"Whereas, The City Attorney did, on the 7th day of May, 1903, render an opinion to this Council that said permission was irregularly granted and void; now be it

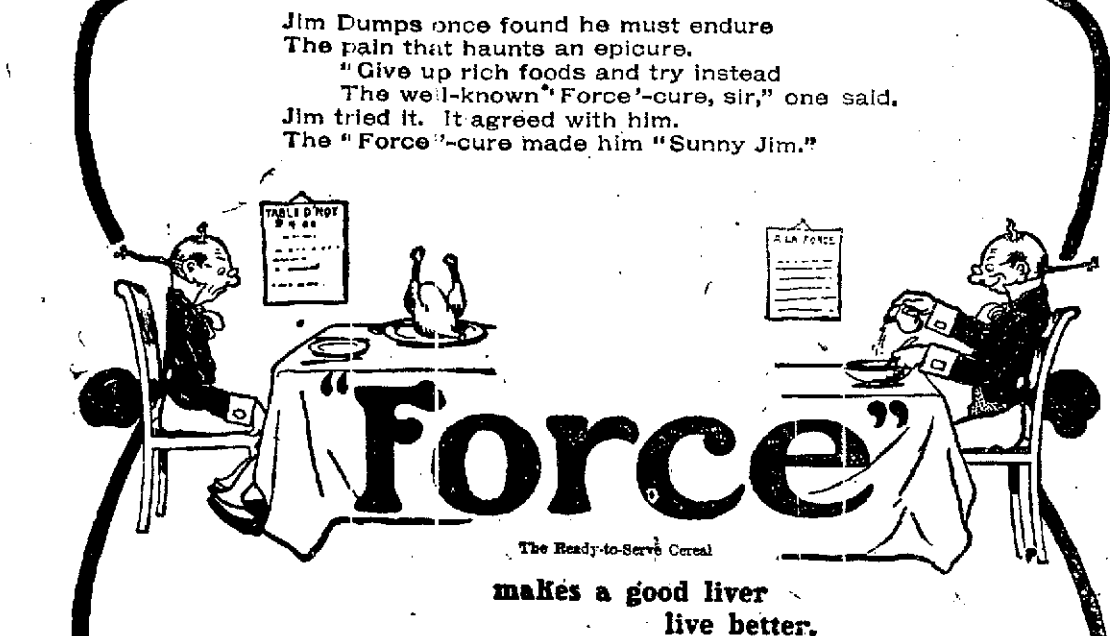

"Resolved, That said C. Lang is hereby granted permission for a year from the 1st day of April, 1903, to apply to the Tax Collector of the City of Oakland, for a license to carry on and conduct the business of selling and furnishing spirituous malt or fermented liquors and wines at 605 Park avenue in the City of Oakland in compliance with the application heretofore filed by said C. Lang, on March 15th, 1903, and in accordance with ordinance of the City of Oakland establishing and regulating the traffic, vending and disposing of spirituous, malt and fermented liquors and admixtures thereof."

There was an informal discussion as to whether or not the matter could be determined at once. Mr. Fitzgerald and others holding that the matter ought to be so disposed of. Others, among them, Mr. Wallace, felt that the matter ought to be referred to the License Committee. That reference was finally made by all the members voting in the affirmative.

his home about a mile from Guerneville, off from the road to Mercury, where he and the wife of his youth remained after all the children had left the home nest.

Two years ago, in April, 1901, the aged couple celebrated their golden wedding at the residence of their daughter in Emeryville.

Several years ago Mr. Simmons had a severe attack of la grippe which left him in an enfeebled condition, from which he never fully recovered. Each succeeding year brought a renewed feebleness, and each time left him weaker than before. Just six months ago he yielded to the solicitations of his children and with his faithful life companion went to Alameda county, where he had been for him in his declining days. Most nobly did they fulfill his trust in them, and tenderly they cared for him until the close of life.

The remains of the deceased were brought to Guerneville on Wednesday morning's train and the funeral took place immediately thereafter. The services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Simmons was a member, the pastor, N. A. Gibb, officiating, and being assisted by Rev. E. Hoskins, pastor of the Congregational Church, who feelingly spoke of the deceased as of a loved friend and neighbor gone.

A select choir rendered appropriate music, and the audience was well supplied with sympathizing friends and neighbors. The pall bearers were selected from those who had known him long and he was borne to the City of the Silent and laid away to rest in eternal peace.

Seven children have been born to the couple. One son died in infancy and two grown daughters, Mrs. Josephine Farley and Mrs. Laura Heffelfinger, preceded their father to another world. Besides a beloved wife, the mourners here are left four children, Mrs. B. P. Seaward of Emeryville, Mrs. Marion Allen of Elmhurst, Thomas J. Simmons of Oakland and B. F. Simmons of Healdsburg. There are also eighteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Further Simmons will be missed in our little community. His genial manner and pleasant smile will be remembered by those who have known him all these years he has lived among us. He leaves many friends and no enemies.

De Golia, Mrs. De Golia and her daughter arrived from the East Sunday. The latter has been attending a fashionable finishing school in New York City.

F. A. Coxhead and family are also guests at Tahoe Tavern which is quite popular with Oaklanders this season.

MINISTER WILL LEAVE.

THE HAGUE, June 23.—The Minister of The Netherlands at Belgrade has been instructed to leave the city before the arrival of King Peter at the Servian capital.

A COMMON ERROR

THE SAME MISTAKE IS MADE BY MANY OAKLAND PEOPLE.

It's a common error
To plaster the aching back,
To rub with liniments rheumatic joints.
When the trouble comes from the kidneys,
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
And are endorsed by Oakland citizens.

D. D. Davis, salesman in dress goods department of Sallinger's department store, residence 1264 Broadway, Alameda, says: "If pain across the back which clings to the persistent for at least two months is any indication of kidney complaint, then I had it. Some three years ago just such an attack occurred and knowing what I suffered when I noticed in an Oak and paper that Doan's Kidney Pills were for the kidneys, and the kidneys alone, I went to a drug store for a box and tried it. If the results obtained from the treatment had not been effective I never would have come out of my way to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to personal friends. I know of more than one who has used Doan's Kidney Pills and who are just as emphatic in their endorsement as I."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ROUGH RIDERS' AY.

The tender of a map of Roosevelt Terrace on the north and south side of Third avenue between Grove and Telegraph avenues was accepted.

Mr. Elliott asked if the name of the President had been given to the property in question, and was answered in the affirmative.

He was sorry he said, for he had intended to have the name of Telegraph avenue changed in honor of the President because it was "Rough Riders' ay."

Unless the name was changed, the rule requiring such action on the part of the Council in other matters, he saw no objection to acting upon the reports in question.

Mr. Cuvelier said if the City Attorney was satisfied, he would make no objection.

ANTI-TOXINE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

COUNCIL ORDERS DRUG TO BE GIVEN FREE TO THE NEEDY.

A resolution was introduced authorizing the Board of Health to dispense diphtheria and anti-toxine free to the needy of the city at an expense of $150. Dr. von Adelung said that he was there to urge the Council to appropriate the small amount asked for to stamp out diphtheria which had been prevalent here for the past month. There had been fifty-two cases and seven deaths last month. There were thirty-six cases this month and seven deaths, with an eighth death just outside the city limits.

Mr. Cuvelier asked if diphtheria were confined to one section of or was it all over the city.

Dr. von Adelung said it was confined to no school nor section.

Mr. Cuvelier said he thought that it might be due to the dumping of garbage in the northern part of the city. That, he said, was a shame. Why, he asked, did not the Board of Health ask the Council to abate that nuisance?

The resolution making the appropriation was adopted unanimously.

His Last Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1890, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea, which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope.

A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure and cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by Osgood Brothers, 7th and Broadway.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE William E. Dargie, President Tribune Publishing Company WALL STREET AND ROOSEVELT. A KICK WITHOUT MERIT.

J. Pierpont Morgan announces that not ten thousand dollars can be collected in Wall street for the Republican campaign fund next year if President Roosevelt is renominated. Mr. Roosevelt is likely to be all the stronger before the people for the dislike he has inspired in Wall street. It is to his credit that he has aroused the animosity of the trust barons and the stock gamblers.

The principal counts in the indictment Wall street has brought against the President are his interference in the coal strike in a way that compelled Baer and his associates to arbitrate notwithstanding their repeated statements that they would never arbitrate and his directions to the Attorney-General to prosecute an action against the Northern Securities Company, which was regarded as a test case under the Sherman law. Public opinion strongly backed the President on both these propositions, and Wall street will make no political capital against him by exhibiting soreness on account of his breaking up the great railway merger and making the coal combine come to terms.

As a fact, however, Mr. Morgan does not control Wall street, nor even his own associates in matters political. C. S. Mellen, president of the Northern Pacific, one of the roads in the Northern Securities merger, says he will personally give ten thousand dollars to aid Mr. Roosevelt's re-election. There are many other wealthy operators in Wall street who will follow Mr. Mellen's example.

While President Roosevelt will not be dependent on Wall street for money to conduct his campaign, he will get plenty of contributions from that source. A large proportion of the magnates in Wall street are offended at the President, but they must support him or do worse. Mr. Roosevelt stands for the bona fide industries and the sound finance that are making the country prosperous. They cannot strike at him without assailing business conditions. If Cleveland or some man of his type and political views is nominated by the Democrats, the Western Democrats will not support him. Therefore to subscribe money to assist the reorganizers in the Democratic party will be giving money to indirectly promote the election of Roosevelt. The situation is about this: The Bryanites had rather see Roosevelt President than Mr. Cleveland or any man of his school. The Clevelandites had rather see Roosevelt President than a Bryanite. It is impossible for Wall street to give any aid and comfort to the Bryan wing, consequently, whatever the disgruntled gamblers and trust organizers may do must be in the way of assisting Roosevelt's re-election.

The protected industries will back Mr. Roosevelt with vigor and determination, which means plenty of money. Protection will be the chief issue, and upon that the Republican party is invincible. If the Democrats nominate a Bryanite sound money and protection will be the issues, as they were in 1896. If a Clevelandite be put against Roosevelt, he will be backed by the trusts and the free traders, and the people will mob the polls to vote against him on account of his backing.

Anyway the situation is looked at, the case is hopeless for the Democrats, for the re-election of Roosevelt is certain no matter what candidate is nominated against him or what platform he may run on. So far as Banker Morgan is concerned, he can be pleased or displeased, just as he may think best. People generally are inclined to chuckle over the fact that he is discredited.

The Pope is annoyed because the press takers continue to send out false reports of his having died. If they do not attack his life with anything more deadly than printer's ink, the venerable Pontiff ought to be thankful for the moderation of the yellow journals.

Other "undisputed securities," equally wild cat in character, besides duplicated grain receipts are being peddled on the market. Some five morning a lot of people will wake up loaded down with securities that can very properly be classed as Confederate money.

Mayor Low is receiving a good deal of praise for refusing to allow Mormon missionaries to preach in the streets of New York. If he has denied all religious propaganda the use of the streets for proselyting purposes, he cannot be blamed for exhibiting religious bias, but if he has made an exception against the Mormons, he has not acted in the spirit of the laws and institutions of this Republic. Mormon missionaries have as much right to preach in the streets of New York as have the missionaries of any other creed. Once the civil authority undertakes to decide what faith should be taught and what forbidden, the door is opened to religious persecution and to oppressions for conscience sake.

It does not appear that Governor Pardee gave Senator Ralston and the other directors of the State Mining Bureau the go-by in selecting the commissioners to the St. Louis Exposition. Under the law he could only appoint two, and the men he selected are universally conceded peculiarly fitted for the task they are to fulfill. True, neither one is engaged in mining or is a mining expert, but Mr. Fitcher resided for many years in a mining county and has a wide acquaintance with the mining industry as well as a warm sympathy with it. He is certainly competent to collect an exhibit of the State's mineral resources at St. Louis. It does not require an expert miner to do that. It would do the miners of California no particular good for one of the commissioners to be personally identified with mining. Mr. Fitcher is not a horticulturist, a viticulturist, a farmer or a stock raiser any more than he is a miner. By profession he is a journalist, but he has demonstrated his intimate knowledge of the State's resources as well as his capacity for collecting and handling to advantage exhibits of her productions. He is as well qualified with respect to the mining industry as he is with respect to the agricultural industry.

But the contention that one of the commissioners ought to have been a mining man is a trifle unreasonable. The mining industry is a very valuable one, but there are many other valuable industries in California. To give one commissioner wholly to the mining industry would leave only one commissioner to represent all the other industries—a most unequal division. The mining industry has not been discriminated against and the fault found with Governor Pardee seems based on the fact that he did not discriminate in its favor.

Who does the Stockton Mail want to see nominated for President and Vice-President? It kicks against every man suggested for either place on either ticket yet it denies being a knocker. We would like to see it boost somebody.

THE PRINCETON ORACLE.

Mr. Cleveland has contrived to give out a strong impression that he is not averse to being a candidate again, or perhaps it would be nearer correct to say that circumstances so arranged themselves as to afford him an opportunity for giving out the impression without declaring himself.

He was given the opportunity by a correspondent who got entangled in the mazes of Mr. Cleveland's Delphian rhetoric. The Sage of Princeton has studied the oracles of Delphos and speaks the language of the Initiated. His tick of tergiversation tripped a scribe from Texas, and hence there is a great shouting among the captains and would be captains.

The Washington correspondent of the Dallas Texas News, called on the ex-President, and telegraphed his paper on coming away that Mr. Cleveland had no desire to return to public life, only desiring to end his days in peace in private in the bosom of his family. There was a lot more of the purport that Mr. Cleveland had no idea of ever being again a candidate for the Presidency, or mingling in the hurly-burly of politics.

Of course this was big news, for it settled the mooted question of the Cleveland candidacy, and was as interesting in Maine as it was in Texas.

But Mr. Cleveland "denies" of it. He announces that he read the statements of the young man from Texas, "with amazement," and claims that he was misrepresented in several important particulars. But he is careful to say in what important particulars. The public would have an easy mind if Mr. Cleveland would state just what he said to the Texas chap. But that is not Mr. Cleveland's way. He leaves the public to infer the points on which he was misrepresented. Naturally the public jumps to the conclusion that it was on the question of being a candidate again. The inference to be drawn is that Mr. Cleveland is perfectly willing to have himself considered as a possible candidate for the Presidency.

Persons who have observed Mr. Cleveland closely will readily believe that he is technically right in his dispute with the correspondent, but it is a question how far the latter was justified in his conclusions. He gave out the impression he received from the ex-President without stopping to analyze the language in which the sage spoke. Instead of repeating Mr. Cleveland's words, he published what he thought Mr. Cleveland meant. He was not familiar with the ex-President's flimsy in speech, his art of conveying an idea without expressing it, his trick of making apparently plain an obscure or ambiguous statement.

However the slip of the unsophisticated correspondent has given Mr. Cleveland an opportunity to place himself in the light of a prospective candidate without declaring himself. If he did not desire to be considered a candidate he would say so in a manner not to be misunderstood, for no man can speak plainer than he on occasion. Only Senator Hanna can equal him in incisive bluntness. Mr. Cleveland is clearly among the possibilities in the class of impossibilities.

The next Texas journalist that interviews Grover Cleveland will have to use a long distance telephone, and the line will be busy whenever he calls.

The Georgia artist who suggested "the unlimited coinage of young Americans" as a platform for President Roosevelt seems to have made a hit with the people who sell Fourth of July fireworks. But it needs a little protection to fit the general idea.

The expected has happened at Jackson, Kentucky. Although the case for the prosecution was clearly proved, the jury disagreed. Intimidation made it self felt in the jury room. The chief witness for the State has had his hotel burned over his head, has taken his family to Lexington to live, knowing that they are marked for assassination because he told the truth under oath. The prosecuting attorney has already prepared to move to another county, and every other person who had any hand in the attempt to bring the assassins of James B. Marcum to justice is preparing to flee from Jackson. The triumph of the murderers appears to be complete. At their head is the county judge and sheriff. A community that will permit itself to be officered by such men is barbarism to the core. A social order has been established in Kentucky that is only comparable to that which existed in Italy during the Middle Ages. Yet we complain of the Mafia and the Chinese highlander societies.

OUR SHIPS IN A GERMAN PORT.

PRINCE HENRY AND HIS OFFICERS SHOW MUCH COURTESY.

KIEL, June 23.—The United States European squadron, Rear-Admiral Cotton in command, reached its anchorage on the yacht club-house, at noon today. The fleet, commanded by Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, consisted of eight battleships and six cruisers. It saluted the American vessels and the band of the German flagship played "America." Some hundreds of townspeople gathered on the piers and slopes of the narrow bay and gave irregular cheers as the squadron arrived.

The fleet sent its navigating officer, Prince Heinrich, to meet the Americans. They met the latter at Oranienburg, where the fleet was to first salute off the port of Friedrichsruh.

The flagship Kearsarge swung into her mooring next to Hohenzollern, followed by the San Francisco, Chicago and Michigan. All the German ships being headed in the visitors' honor and flying the Stars and Stripes.

Rear-Admiral Cotton and Capt. Joseph N. Hemphill, commander of the Kearsarge, were met by the German commanders also called on the eight German admirals and vice-admirals stationed on this, the greatest stronghold of Germany, and the fleet was to return to Kiel.

A strenuous protest was made by the Kielers against the fleet's visit, claiming that it was a violation of the neutrality laws. The protest was, however, of no avail, and the fleet remained in Kiel for several days.

FORTY-TWO YEARS IN NATIONAL GUARD.

Sergeant Charles Ellis, the armorer of the Fifth Infantry in this city, has just passed the forty-second anniversary of his enlistment in A Company of that regiment. He was, therefore, admitted to the honor of being a member of the company which was born in 1866. He is not only the oldest member of the company, but his consecutive enlistment in the National Guard of this State is unequalled by any other member of the organization.

Recognizing the sergeant's devotion and services, the company presented him with a gold watch on the night of the anniversary of his entering the service. The watch of presentation was made by Captain Hunt and was inscribed with the greatest intent by all the members of the company. After the presentation there was a jollification in which the sergeant was the center of attraction.

AT THE NOVELTY.

Manager Lubelski presented to his patrons at the Novelty Theater last evening the best program seen at this house. The first of the many vaudeville acts, the recently engaged duo, the East made their initial appearance and made a decided hit; the parties in question being the Kahn Trio, instrumental players, singers and dancers. Their act is out of the ordinary, original in character, and received warm recognition from the audience. They are a drawing card.

Among the other performers are the Star Sisters, singers and dancers, who did their turn acceptably. Harry Dawson, the new illustrated singer made his first bow to an Oakland audience, and rendered his song in English, German and Italian. The comedy sketch team, Paul Lacroix, the expert juggler and the new moving pictures go to make up an entertainment that has never before been presented hereabouts for the admission of ten cents.

If you will consult your best interests you will heed what we say: it will be a lifetime SOURCE OF WEALTH to you and yours. LARGE DIVIDENDS will surely be earned and paid in the near future.

BECAUSE THE FREDERICK IMPROVED PAINT AND PAVEMENT CO.

Is organized and will soon be ready for business as contractors for paving city streets, under its new patented process, with the best pavement material—the most durable, hence the cheapest and the most satisfactory in every possible way. The people will rejoice to see us at work, which will happen without much delay.

We have successfully demonstrated our claims to having the best pavement on earth by the sample we have put down of 1900 square feet on San Pablo avenue, opposite the City Hall. Go see it and be convinced. We will have our own MOUNTAIN OF CEMENT, PORTLAND CEMENT, RICH IN ASPHALT, close to railroad and to deep water wharf; cheap transportation will be in our favor. The governmental special reports say it is the largest and best deposit in the United States. Marsden Manson in his report says there is not much doubt but what that tract contains immense quantities of cement ready to pipe to a vessel only four miles away. But the paving material is good enough of itself.

AND NOW, FOR GOODNESS SAKE, SEE HERE! SEE HERE!

We are also the sole proprietors of the newly celebrated FREDERICK WATER PROOF AND FUR PROOF PAINT. We can very soon manufacture it cheaper than any other so-called good paint, and it will show none of the defects of all other paints. It is the best of the best of all the others. It is the best for all purposes to which paint is adapted, from a car or coach to the hull of a steamship, the best home and roof paint in the world. It is a secret preparation; it has been used for years; much of its work is to be seen in Oakland and San Francisco that speaks for itself; enthusiastic and unsolicited testimonials in abundance are in our possession, and we will show them to you.

DON'T FORGET, BUT REMEMBER, that this paint, THE FREDERICK PAINT, which we own and will manufacture in immense quantities, will command a WORLD'S PATRONAGE.

AND WHY? BECAUSE it is elastic; it will not blister; it will not crack, scum, curl, chalk or be faulty of any kind. It is the ONLY PAINT THAT SUCCESSFULLY RESISTS THE RAVAGES OF THE TERREDO WORM, which rots woodwork and ruins almost worthless in a short time. Experiments lasting months have proved our claim.

It is not only water and rust-proof when applied to the hulls of all sorts of ocean vessels, but it is thoroughly proven that NO BARNACLES WILL ATTACH THEMSELVES TO IT. THEREFORE, EITHER IRON OR WOODEN HULLS that have been painted with FREDERICK PAINT, IT IS THE ONLY PAINT THAT WILL ACCOMPLISH SUCH A DESIRABLE RESULT.

NOW, YOU PRACTICAL INVESTORS, you are going to ask us to USE YOUR COMMON SENSE, and invest your money in any sum to suit you. This money is GOING TO—We said IS GOING TO—raise $300,000 in the next two to five days. It will not be because "our cause is just and conquer we must." We have got a special use for it, and it will be invested in good real estate that we must have for the use of the company. For this purpose only we will let you in on the "ground-floor" and for a short time only we will sell the company's stock at the very low rate of 25 cents per share.

ONLY 25 CENTS PER SHARE.

Our success will be as assured that IT WILL BE ADVANCED TO PROBABLY 50 CENTS, or thereabouts, by August 1, if not before. Within twelve months the time this stock will be worth $1 or more per share by reason of our great volume of business and the large dividends that will be earned. The stock will eventually go far above par. BUY IN TIME. We cannot afford to let the market where we are getting started. Buy at once, and do this quickly WE WANT GOOD SALES AGENTS.

The following are a few of the principal parties in this company, viz: G. L. Curtis, Oakland; Dr. Thomas S. Wallis, East Oakland; Dr. R. F. Marshall, East Oakland; T. S. Maderick, San Francisco; A. having in his possession any portion of the sale money.

Leroy Harvey acted as Woodward's agent in the purchase of the big Sather tract in East Oakland from Mrs. Brugliere, for which $250,000 was paid. Woodward claims that from the report made to him by Harvey he was induced to pay $33,500 more than the real value of the property.

The Owl Drug Trust's New Plan

The poor old top heavy Drug Trust is having a hard time putting The Owl out of business.

The paid hirings and papers of the Drug Trust are admitting now that The Owl is doing a splendid business in spite of all the obstructions placed in our way by the Trust, but they hope to beat us yet by meeting our cut rates—yes even going below our prices for the time being.

The plan is as follows: The Drug Trust has written to forty of the big medicine manufacturers of the East asking each to contribute $25 a week to advertise cut rates, lower than The Owl, which the Trust claim will cause The Owl to lose $100 a day, and then we will be glad to come to terms in favor of the Trust. The 227 druggists in San Francisco will select one drug store probably on Market street as the store to advertise cut rates from. Then they will turn loose and bombard The Owl until we will be glad to cry "enough."

Now isn't that a nice plan (for the store that gets the $1,000 a week donation.)

In the meanwhile The Owl will be putting its claws into the fat Drug Trust as usual and Owl customers will be getting the same good, prompt service and dependable drugs as delivered. Main 309, ders delivered. Main 309.

Helpful Hints for the Holidays

Schools are closed, but the Carnival and the Fourth of July will probably keep you here for some days yet. But whether here or elsewhere, there are certain lines that possess striking interest at this time. Some of them are:

Colored Dresses for Children

Here are the dresses that avoid anxiety as well as the grade for state occasions. This year's colored dresses have compelled many flatterers to confess that there are plenty left.

For little people from 1 to 4 years, the prices are from .35c to $2.50.
For the older ones from 5 to 14, prices range from 75c to $4.50.

Vacation Headwear for Children

Under this heading we will include the Lawn Hats in pink blue and white—many different patterns. Prices, 50c, 75c to $2.50.

Lawn Caps—Something to suit every child in the county—prices from 25c, 35c and up to $2.00.

Canvas cloth hats in all colors: stitched brims, very durable. .50c and 75c.
Canvas and white pique Tam O'Shanter. .50c

Sunbo Cap made of gingham or percale in both light and dark shade, also white. 25c and 50c

Misses' Stylish Skirts

This is a line that requires a specially good judgment. It is easier to satisfy adults than their juniors because different styles are required for every age from 15 to 20. A young lady in her teens is no longer a child, nor is she a woman—hence the rub. However, our marked success along these lines impels us to say that we must have what is right.

At $2.25—Misses' dress skirt made of Cheviot serge: plain blue or black.

At $3.50—Very neat walking skirt in navy, cadet and green; slit seams, corded flounce stitched at bottom.

At $4.50—Walking skirt of blue and white mixture, trimmed with plain cloth straps with two tone stitching; slit seams in flounce.

Combination Overalls

—suited for boys and girls up to 8 years old; made of very strong, fine-checked blue and white pingham. .50c
Denim overalls for girls—blue with red trimmings, sizes to 10 years. .50c

Romping suits for little girls up to 6 years; blue denim with collar, belt and sleeves. Edged with red. .75c

Blouses for Boys

—these can be torn but we never heard of it. One line specially suited for vacation is made of strong percale in dark shades. .25c

The mannish blouses for boys are made of colored madras or percale, have turn-down collars and are reinforced where the strain comes. .50c and 65c

TO CONSIDER FRUITVALE ANNEXATION.

Petition and Boundaries Presented Will Be Inquired Into By the City Council.

The Council met last night as a Committee of the Whole, with Mr. Elliott in the chair.

The question of the annexation of Fruitvale, for which a petition had been filed was brought up.

Mr. Cuvelier said he did not want to be in a hurry in the matter. He wanted to know what guaranty they had that all the names on the petition were those of bona fide residents. Did any one verify the names on the petition?

An outside citizen, D. P. Barnett said he had verified the petition with the Great Register.

Mr. Cuvelier said he wanted an official verification of the petition and not that of an outsider.

Mr. Wallace moved that the Council listen to the story of D. Barnett and Mr. Newell, because those men he said, had had charge of the matter.

Mr. Dornin offered an amendment that the matter be referred to a committee of three to investigate the whole question, including the boundaries of the proposed annexation. The motion prevailed.

The chair appointed as such committee Councilmen Dornin, Wallace and Cuvelier.

Mr. Cuvelier asked to be excused from serving on the committee, as he might soon have to ask for leave of absence.

Mr. Dornin then was appointed instead of Mr. Cuvelier.

A. H. Cohen appeared for the protestants, and at the same time filed a protest with the clerk, signed by W. Taylor Grubb and about sixty other people residing west of Sausal creek, who opposed annexation.

Mr. Cohen said the description of the property proposed to be annexed, was incorrect, and uncertain. A petition containing forty-eight names, supposed to be those of residents, contained the names of twenty-three non-residents. He said the names of the non-residents were those of the city of Oakland which act will have precedence.

Will the town of Fruitvale, if incorporated, govern the strip of land in the city limits, which is included in the boundary lines given in the petition for annexation, or will the city of Oakland if the voters decide to take Fruitvale in their midst?

It is my opinion that whoever takes action first will have the precedence, that is, if the people of Fruitvale incorporate, then they control the strip of land in question, but if the Council takes action first then they will have the said of this portion of Fruitvale.

As the matter now stands with the Council, a special committee will meet Thursday night to consider the petition for annexation and hear the protests and also to examine the signatures on the petition, as the claim has been made that some are not voters.

OTHER MATTERS.
The committee recommended the advertising for the bids for a franchise for the Oakland and East Side R-R. The committee also recommended the request for an extension of time of thirty days to complete the equalization was recommended.

Adjourned.

OAKLAND MUST HURRY.

THAT IS IF SHE WANTS FRUITVALE IN THE CITY.

The boundary lines given in the petition asking that Fruitvale district be annexed to the city now pending in the Council, take in a portion of the town of Fruitvale, the people of which have already petitioned the Supervisors for incorporation.

Thus, the question arises, if the town of Fruitvale is incorporated and the Fruitvale district is brought into the city of Oakland which act will have precedence?

Will the town of Fruitvale, if incorporated, govern the strip of land in the city limits, which is included in the boundary lines given in the petition for annexation, or will the city of Oakland if the voters decide to take Fruitvale in their midst?

It is my opinion that whoever takes action first will have the precedence, that is, if the people of Fruitvale incorporate, then they control the strip of land in question, but if the Council takes action first then they will have the said of this portion of Fruitvale.

TOOTING WHISTLE CAUSED HIS ARREST.

A tin whistle, a razor, a revolver and the testimony of Policeman Thompson is the evidence against Henry Brown, charged, to prove that he was drunk and carried on a riotous and disorderly conduct in the vicinity of Seventh and Market streets at 1 o'clock this morning.

The tooting of the tin whistle was what at first attracted the attention of Policeman Thompson. Brown, and when the patrol wagon had carried Brown to the City Prison the razor and revolver were found on his person and the charges resulted.

Brown, confessed to Police Judge Smith this morning that he was drunk, but could not remember tooting the whistle, but explained the reason for the razor and revolver by saying that he was in search of a pawn shop in order that he might sell the weapons. The court ordered that Brown be confined in the City Prison twenty-eight days or pay a fine of $50 on both charges.

BOY AND LEMON BROKE BALLOON.

David Duncan, aged 14 years and curious, shied a lemon at the balloon which is stationed in the street fair grounds yesterday afternoon, with the result that the fruit went through the side of the balloon, the gas escaped and the balloon burst.

The youth was arrested and booked at the City Prison on a charge of malicious mischief. The police court this morning the charge was dismissed, as B. R. Sexton, owner of the damaged balloon, refused to prosecute.

VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN AGAINST BUNCO MEN.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Plans have been discussed at a meeting of several members of the New York Stock Exchange and the Consolidated Exchange for the inauguration of a vigorous campaign against "get-rich-quick" concerns pretending to center about Wall street. This is an outline of the campaign:

1. Introduction of legislation looking to an alteration of the law affecting the corporation of companies; prosecution of all "get-rich-quick" swindlers whenever evidence can be found against them sufficient to warrant arrest; ferreting out and exposure of bogus mercantile agencies which multiply references for these companies; exposure and prosecution of Wall street newspapers which, for a financial consideration, supply these concerns with favorable reports and accept their advertisements.

NOT THE GENUINE ARTICLE.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The papal bull known as "Laudibiter," over which controversies between historians have been waged for some seven centuries is not genuine, according to the announcement of Professor Oliver Joseph Thatcher of the University of Chicago.

The paper entitled "Studies concerning Adrian IV," just issued from the University press.

This conclusion is the result of a trip to Europe, a year's study in the "Latin library," and the reading of numerous Latin documents.

The Laudibiter, so called from the occurrence of the Latin word in the salutation, has long been supposed to be a grant made by Pope Adrian IV, of the island of Ireland to hold in fief.

Professor Thatcher shows that the question of the offering of Ireland to Henry II, of England, and the question of the genuineness of the bull, are not the same.

"Laudibiter cannot have been written," says Professor Thatcher, "by one who knew what was essential to such a document. It is a forgery of some twelfth century student who was practicing in the art of composition, and for this purpose chose to impersonate Adrian IV. It must be rejected as entirely worthless."

AMNESTY FOR OFFENDER.

BELGRADE, June 23.—The British Minister to Serbia left here this morning for London.

It is understood that the first bill submitted to King Peter will be one prepared by the Minister of Justice granting amnesty for all political offenders.

DIED OF CONSUMPTION.

At his late residence, 1274 Tenth street, William Johnson, a member of Company F, Fifth Regiment, N. Y. C., and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, died Sunday evening of quick consumption. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains were interred in the city cemetery.

LIVELY CONTEST OVER RECEPTION FOR A BIG CORPORATION.

NEWARK, N. J., June 23.—Argument of counsel in the suit for the appointment of a receiver for the United States Shipbuilding Company was heard today before United States Circuit Judge Kirkpatrick.

The hearing in Trenton yesterday disposed of all the affidavits and formal papers in the case and each side was allotted three hours for final argument.

For the receiver, the United States Shipbuilding Company was represented by R. V. Lindabury, who said that the plan of reorganization was a definite plan to wreck the corporation and that the complainants had the equitable right to have the court interfere to preserve their holdings.

Mr. Lindabury declared that he would show the court that the corporation was insolvent.

It was conceived in iniquity, maintained by fraud and is ending in crime," he said. The facts, counsel said, warranted an appointment of a receiver.

An alternative plan, Mr. Lindabury declared that if the insolvency was not shown to the satisfaction of the court, the corporation would claim that the plan of reorganization was a definite plan to wreck the corporation and that the complainants had the equitable right to have the court interfere to preserve their holdings.

SAYS HUSBAND WAS CRUEL.

MRS. IDA HOPPER WANTS A DIVORCE AND ALIMONY.

Mrs. Ida Hopper yesterday brought suit for divorce from Frank Hopper an engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, on the grounds of extreme cruelty. She asks $100 counsel fees, $25 costs to prosecute the action and $80 a month alimony.

The couple were married in San Francisco about seven years ago, and have no children. Mrs. Hopper states that her husband has abused her for several years, though the specific acts of cruelty are within the last two years. She states that on June 25, 1901, a letter was sent to her from her relatives which her husband got possession of and kept from her for some time. When she did get hold of the letter she found out that her sister was ill and had written to her requesting that she come home and nurse her.

Mrs. Hopper says that her husband stormed and fumed about the house saying that she should not nurse her sister but if she did, and contracted the disease herself, he would not pay her doctor bill. He also said she was crazy and ought to be sent to an insane asylum.

On April 12, 1902, Mrs. Hopper invited some of her relatives to accompany her to a picnic. She says her husband became very much enraged, and angrily declared he would not go to a picnic with a lot of "Swedes." In the following December, Mrs. Hopper, her husband, after taking her photographs and stamping them on the floor, choked her and told her he was going to desert her.

On June 7th last Mrs. Hopper says, her husband again abused her, and a few days later threatened to kill her if she sought to bring divorce proceedings. Yesterday, Mrs. Hopper says, her husband, bent her because she went to San Francisco to visit her brother.

She says she could not stand his treatment any longer and so left him. Attorney F. V. Meyers is acting as her counsel.

It is said that Hopper receives $170 a month salary and has about $200 in bank, besides $250 due from the Southern Pacific Company. A restraining order is asked to prevent him from disposing of his money pending the action.

IDORA PARK IS A DRAWING CARD.

Idora Park is still attracting the crowds and last night the success of the celebrated Eastern artists was evidenced by the applause and praise which they received from all sides.

Dick Mack as a tramp, is an artist in his line, his jokes, songs, dancing, hat spinning, etc., are new, original and entertaining.

Little Irene, the juvenile vocalist, made a hit with everyone, while the Misses Bruce and Rosa, who have been trained by popular vote, had an entire change of songs, dancing, etc., and were loudly applauded.

Harry Sylvester, the illustrated song vocalist sang some new songs and was applauded as usual.

The evening's Amelita, is a graceful Spanish dancer of the Carmendia type and pleased everyone.

Kalacatus, the phenomenal equilibrist, is an expert in his line. His balancing is without comparison and his position are at times both dangerous and hazardous.

On the Fourth of July there will be many extra attractions at Idora Park. A grand display of fireworks will be set off in the evening which will be worth a long drive to see. The laughing gallery, scenic railway, coal mine, and the scores of other attractions are enjoyed by all. Friday night will be another night.

The admission to the gallery is free the dress circle 10 cents and the orchestra 25 cents.

Idora Park is located on Telegraph avenue and Fifty-second street. Take Telegraph or Shattuck avenue cars.

PROTESTS AND PETITIONS PRESENTED TO BOARD.

Trustees Wade Through a Lot of Routine Work and Settle Many Grievances.

BERKELEY, June 23.—What with reports of officers and committees, protests and petitions, the Board of Trustees held a lengthy session last night, and not through with a lot of routine business. The more important matter was saved until the last, and the crowd waited patiently till nearly midnight for the excitement that turned out to be very tame after all. Following is a brief account of the routine work:

The electric light committee recommended the placing of an electric light on the corner of Vine and Oxford street. The report was accepted and the light ordered put in place.

A petition was received from the property-owners on Mary street to have that thoroughfare graded and macadamized by private contract. The petition was placed on file, pending an investigation of the street committee.

Several property-owners made protest against the practice of sewer contractors and water and gas companies of leaving the streets in a bad condition, after laying pipes from the different mains to the houses. Through the sharp competition between the contractors the work is done as cheaply as possible, and in consequence, many of the contractors do not put the streets back in as good condition as it was found. As one of the trustees said last night, it is possible to trace all of the pipes in Berkeley by the bad places in the street. The town superintendent of streets was instructed to enforce the town ordinance covering the matter to its fullest extent. The ordinance provides that the contractor deposit $5, which shall be used to lay the street if he does not return the rock properly.

A petition was received from several leading citizens objecting to the advertisements for patent medicines that have lately appeared on the fences of Berkeley. The matter was referred to the superintendent of streets, and the protesters empowered to buy paint at their own expense and to efface the obscene notices.

When the several ordinances came up for final passage, Trustee Hart, in reference to the one fixing the tax on the coming year, moved that the tax on Work, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. The bride will be attended by Miss Ellen Smith, a daughter of the acting clergyman and a life-long friend of Miss Riggs. Weston Clark, a brother of the groom, will act as best man. Both of the contracting parties are well known here. Miss Riggs recently resigned from the Le Conte School, where she had taught ever since its founding. Mr. Clark is a son of the late C. K. Clark, who was graduated from the University of California with the class of '90. At present he holds a responsible position with an electric light and gas company of San Francisco.

WEDDING BELLS WILL RING.

PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLE TO BE UNITED IN MARRIAGE.

BERKELEY, June 23.—The first meeting of the University's summer session will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in Hearst Hall. This is the opening day of the session and the students will be addressed by Professor Henry Morse Stephens and a associate Professor J. R. Angell of the University of Chicago. These meetings will be held at regular intervals throughout the session and will be addressed by prominent visiting professors.

PUNCHING BURKE EXPENSIVE.

SCHMIDT BROTHERS PAY FINE FOR MOLESTING THE DELEGATE.

BERKELEY, June 23.—It cost the Schmidt brothers $100 between them for molesting walking delegate John J. Burke, who attempted to cause the men working for the Schmidt brothers to go on a strike. The contractors were tried in Justice Edgar's court yesterday afternoon. William Schmidt pleaded guilty, but his brother, Ed, denied having anything to do with the affair, that he did not lay violent hands upon Burke. The Schmidts claimed that Burke, who is president of the Laborers' Protective Union, had been hanging around for two weeks trying to influence the men into thinking that the men were to be paid for the work. At the time of the assault Burke was at the private property of the Schmidts. After listening to the testimony Justice Edgar fined William Schmidt $50 and his brother, Ed, $40.

TROUBLE OVER ADVERTISING PASSES INTO HISTORY.

Ellis Withdraws Bid and Trustees Award Contract to Gazette Publishing Co.

BERKELEY, June 23.—With the bid of the Standard Publishing Company withdrawn, with that paper virtually a thing of the past, with an attachment on the plant and with the Gazette Publishing Company once more on top, the trouble over awarding the contract for the town advertising is over, and the affair has passed into civic and journalistic history.

All through the long meeting of the Board of Trustees last night those most interested waited for the matter which was the last item on the program to come up. When it was brought before the board there was no noise of battle, only a low murmuring drone resembling a dirge. Ellis withdrew from the contract and Richardson got the contract. Neither side said much, one taking its defeat quietly, the other its success without comment.

For his brother Henry, Willis R. Ellis said that the bid for the town printing had been made in good faith, and without opposition from the other two partners, Fontecilla and Eveleth. This opposition had developed later. His brother, a week ago, thought that he could fulfill the contract, now, owing to subsequent complications, he found himself unable to do the work. He asked that he and his bondsmen be released. The board rescinded its action of the meeting before, which meant that Ellis's bondsmen were released and that the $250 cash deposit was refunded. The contract was then awarded to the Gazette.

MARRIED IN A HURRY.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Record-Herald of today says:

Miss Cecile Lewis, daughter of Senator A. B. Lewis of Utah, was married to Frank H. Blair of Lima, Ohio, last night in the Auditorium Annex. Rev. S. P. Bembridge, chaplain of Chicago Hotels, summoned hastily by telephone, performed the ceremony. Miss Lewis' home is in Salt Lake, where the wedding was to have taken place several weeks ago. Circumstances, however, compelled its postponement and made necessary the hurried meeting in Chicago. The young couple were classmates at Ohio Wesleyan College, Delaware, Ohio. They left last night for Lima, Ohio, where the bridegroom is cashier of the Citizens' National Bank.

FIRST MEETING PLANNED FOR THE SUMMER SESSION.

BERKELEY, June 23.—The first meeting of the University's summer session will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in Hearst Hall. DASHED THROUGH GROVE OF EUCALYPTUS TREES.

BERKELEY, June 23.—Drawn by a frightened team of horses, a gravel wagon was carried evenly between and through the eucalyptus grove back of the University campus yesterday afternoon while the driver clung to the seat, unable to stop the wild animals on the steep grade. The team, which was being used for hauling gravel in the neighborhood of the new amphitheater, was left standing for a moment, and striking fright, started down the grade. The driver, J. Conley, ran and got into the wagon, but he was too late to gain control of his team. The foot of the grade, the wheels of the wagon struck a stump, the shock throwing Conley to the ground. The unfortunate driver struck on the back of his head, sustaining a painful, though not dangerous injury. He was also hurt in various other parts of his body. He was taken to his home in West Berkeley after his wounds had been dressed by Dr. Gladding.

EXPLOSION CAUSES DEATH.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The explosion of ninety pounds of flash-light powder in the basement of a residence at Berwyn has caused the death of Mrs. Mary Wilson, wrecked the house, and created a panic among the children of the Irving School on adjoining property. Mrs. Wilson was working in the basement, forming the powder into cones ready for a supply house in Chicago.

The powder had become caked from dampness and Mrs. Wilson was running vigorously between her hands to reduce it and this friction, it is believed, caused the powder to explode.

BUSY DAY FOR RED MEN AT FRUITVALE—INCORPORATORS ARE ANXIOUS.

FRUITVALE, June 23.—Laura C. Council, Improved Order of Red Men, held a special session in the Masonic hall, corner of Fruitvale avenue and East Fourteenth street, last evening. Ten "pale-faces" were initiated into the mysteries of the order. The lodge had as guests of honor, the grand officers of the society, who witnessed the work of the degree team.

At the close of the evening, the guests were tendered a banquet by the members of the local organization.

On Friday evening, Ah Wah, Nee Tien No. 88 of Red Men, will confer three degrees on three candidates.

Both lodges are planning to take part in the Fourth of July parade at Oakland. They will have as their representatives from Fruitvale, and the brave will present an imposing sight, decked out in their gaudy feathers and war paint.

NO LICENSE YET.

James Coates, who is building a large saloon and billiard hall on East Fourteenth street and Front avenue, was again unable to secure a license from the supervisors yesterday. The affair is causing considerable comment here. Coates has behind him the agents of the father trust, who sold him the land upon which his place is being erected. Opposed to him are some of the residents of the vicinity and H. B. Mowbray, pastor of the Congregational church. The petitioners allege that only two of the signatures of Coates' petition are his immediate neighbors. The law requires that six out of the ten nearest residents must sign the petition for a license. The matter was laid over for a week to enable the County Surveyor to seek if the allegations in the protest were true.

INCORPORATED.

The petition for the incorporation of Fruitvale Sanitary district No. 1, was presented to the Board of Supervisors at their meeting yesterday morning. The committee of the whole, meanwhile those who are interested in the proposition will do some urgent lobbying with the Supervisors. They fear that if the measure does not go through now, it never will.

CODFISH BALL A SUCCESS.

GOLDEN GATE PEOPLE ENJOY NOVEL AFFAIR—WOODMEN MEET.

GOLDEN GATE, June 23.—The codfish ball given by the McDonald sisters of Golden Gate, at their academy on the corner of San Pablo avenue and Twenty-eighth street on Saturday evening was quite a novel affair and a pronounced success. It was largely attended by the young people of this place and all reported a most enjoyable evening. The favors were in the shape of little codfishes and made very appropriate souvenirs of the occasion. During the evening Miss Stella McDonald executed several very clever Spanish dances and was elaborately costumed in keeping with the nationality. The program of dances was decidedly different from the usual stereotyped program now in vogue and made a very pleasant change.

ELMHURST MAN WORKS FOR CHURCH AND SALOON—NEWS NOTES.

ELMHURST BASEBALL.

ELMHURST, June 23.—That Elmhurst is not totally against saloons, has just been shown by an interesting discovery. A prominent member of the Presbyterian church, who has been ranging for an entertainment to take place on Thursday night for the benefit of the church, has also been going around among his friends and neighbors getting signatures to a saloonkeeper's petition for a license. If the person he interviews refuses to sign the circular, he is requested to buy a ticket for the church entertainment. Maybe the victim is asked to subscribe to both causes.

BASEBALL.

The Elmhurst baseball nine defeated the team from San Leandro Sunday afternoon by a score of 2 to 0 in a well played game.

DEATH OF MR. WALSH.

Michael Walsh, aged 44, of the San Leandro road, died at his home Sunday afternoon of heart trouble. He was survived by a mother, a brother and two sisters. The deceased was one of the best known residents of this vicinity. He was well educated and at one time was a leading attorney.

DEATH OF TENNY BABY.

The three-months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tenny of Mountain View avenue, died early Sunday morning. The cause of its sudden death is unknown. The mother is prostrate with grief.

Mr. Conant is a well known conductor on the Haywards division of the Oakland Transit and has held office in the Grand Lodge for two terms. Mr. Cramer is a colleague of Mr. Conant. The Druids now have a membership in the State of 10,000, an increase of 1500 over last year.

SUSPECTED OF MURDER.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., June 23.—An Italian has been found at Tachahoe, who answers the description of the murderer of Special Officer Ahearn. He is badly battered up, his face showing signs of a severe beating such as Ahearn administered to his assailant. He was in such a condition that a priest was summoned to the police station.

ARRESTED FOR FRAUD.

RUTLAND, Vt., June 23.—Howard J. Hill of Bristol, formerly teller in the Farmers' National Bank of Vergennes, which was wrecked two years ago by Charles Lewis, has been arrested on a charge of abstracting funds from the bank. Lewis and his clerk are now serving sentences in State prison.

EXCAVATION IS DONE.

LIVELY GAME OF BASEBALL AT EMERYVILLE WON BY ROSE TEAM.

EMERYVILLE, June 23.—The laborious task of excavating the subway for the Oakland Transit Company, which passes under the Southern Pacific tracks has at last been completed and the concrete layers are now busily engaged in laying the wall and a half foot floor and building the heavy concrete walls along the sides of the big ditch. As soon as they are through with their work everything will be done and ready for the track layers.

ROSE TEAM WON.

On Sunday afternoon the Rose baseball team met the Bruns team for the second time in a matched game of baseball and for the second time the former were victorious, the score being 65 to 13. Last week the Rose team won quite handsily and were challenged to a return game and the stakes decided upon were a French dinner. The game was witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiasts, and both teams played an excellent game. The large score notwithstanding, and many of the players figured in sensational catches and healthy stick work. The battery for the winning team was Farrell and McNamee, while Harbridge and Pope, played for the Bruns team. J. Webb of the winning team played an unusually good game at the third station.

MANY CARS.

Park avenue assumed a straggly metropolitan air on Sunday with a large number of electric cars plying back and forth from San Pablo avenue to the Southern Pacific tracks. On account of the extremely large crowds that they have had to handle, the Oakland Transit Company put on a number of their large Telegraph avenue cars and at one time during the latter part of the afternoon there were six cars plying back and forth. The occasion was the Turnverein picnic at Shell Mound Park.

DISTURBED THE PEA E.

Yesterday John Coniger was arrested by Marshal Lane for disturbing the peace and he is now languishing at the county jail. He was drunk and disorderly.

CHINA-RUSSIAN AGREEMENT.

LONDON, June 23.—According to the Peking correspondent of the Times Prince Ching, president of the Foreign Board, after having submitted to the late Russian Charge d'Affaires at Peking, a memorandum of an agreement between Russia and China, which is now being discussed at St. Petersburg. He declines to intimate what he characterizes as the Russo-Chinese agreement to the ministers of the other powers, but there seems small doubt that the agreement is satisfactory to both China and Russia.

SCORES BASEBALL ROWDYISM.

PEOPLE OF HAYWARDS DO NOT LIKE WOMEN MASCOTS WHO DRINK AT BARS.

LIVERMORE, June 23.—The members of the local lodge of the A. O. U. D. are highly elated over the fact that one of their members has achieved the high distinction of being elected to preside over the destinies of the Pacific jurisdiction of the order. Mr. Beck's friends outside of the order are also gratified that he met with such signal success at the meeting of the grand lodge in Sacramento last week. In Mr. Beck the order has an earnest worker and his success has been well merited.

CHANGES AT CREAMERY.

A. L. and F. S. Young, proprietors of the Livermore Creamery, have effected arrangements whereby in future the entire product of the creamery will be made into butter and shipped to a large wholesale butter house in San Francisco. Heretofore the local creamery has disposed of its cream to an Oakland firm, and the butter was then shipped to the large firm of the Livermore butter makes this later arrangement more profitable.

WOMAN MASCOT.

An aggregation of baseball enthusiasts from Oakland played with the local team Sunday. They arrived on the 9:15 o'clock train in the morning and immediately began to liberally patronize the saloons. As a consequence they became imbued with a desire to astonish the natives by their actions. They were accompanied by a female, who insisted upon marching up to the bar and having her booze with the boys, which action created no little comment, which seemed to be the object sought for by the individual in petticoats. She probably imagined she was doing something smart and she certainly was no self-respecting woman would seek after. There seemed to be a large following of her, and she was constantly being asked to dispose of a large quantity of liquor and create a noise on the streets. The local team beat them in the game, and if they wish to retain the respect of the community they will in the future refrain from bringing such an aggregation to visit the town.

EXERCISES HELD AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

year ago, both in magnitude and quality.

HAPPY YOUNG PEOPLE.

"The Board of Directors, acting upon a happy suggestion, decided to make the first afternoon a children's day, and hence these opening exercises are graced by the happy faces of the young people. No more appropriate beginning could have been made, and, under such pleasing auspices, this fair is sure to be a success.

LIVE FOR CHILDREN.

"We live for our children, and all good things—all progress, all projects and enterprises belong to them and to their future much more—very much more—than to us who are older.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

"I wish to say to you, my young friends, there is a great object lesson for you who are thoughtful in the undertaking you see here today.

"The information gained within the walls of the school house and from the text book, as I have often told some of you, and the power acquired by study in school rooms, but the tools with which to work.

LESSONS IN LIFE.

"The real lessons are learned in life, and that which actually counts is character.

"This beautiful and interesting scene spread out before you on every side has a deep meaning for you, if you will grasp it. It means that opportunity has been seized and utilized. It exemplifies the power of vision, and concerted action of well-directed and systematic effort. It teaches you that the qualities of manhood are the real thing and bring results.

CIVIC PRIDE.

"Take a lesson from it of civic pride and public spirit, and while you enjoy its beauty and pleasures, may you also remember its deeper meaning. You are the guests of the management and, after these brief opening exercises are over, you are expected to take possession of these grounds and enjoy yourselves as American boys and girls just out of school can do, and have a right to do.

BANISH CARE.

"And so may all young and old banish dull care and enter into the full enjoyment of the varied entertainments here provided.

"This is the kind of enjoyment which is made so much more keen by the knowledge that the more of it the more good is done.

ASSOCIATIONS OF WOMEN.

"The various associations of women here represented, doing noble work in many directions, give you the opportunity of enjoying yourselves for the benefit of the most worthy causes in our community—of helping the needy, the suffering and the distressed.

"May the next eleven days and nights be one continuous celebration of good-fellowship and patriotism in Oakland, culminating on our great National day in the most gratifying success for the Fourth of July celebration and the Oakland Street Fair and Carnival, and insuring the permanent growth of the spirit of harmony and progress so well begun."

CHILDREN'S VOICES.

A bright and merry gathering of children from the Cole and Prescott schools, singing a vacation song under the direction of Miss Eliza Brown.

ACTING MAYOR DORNIN.

In the absence of Mayor Olney, Acting Mayor Dornin, who was received with cheers, spoke as follows:

"Mr. Director, and Gentlemen of the Committee:—Just a few moments ago, when you threw open the doors in yonder imposing portal, you inaugurated the second of what we hope may be a long series of annually recurring street fairs in Oakland, and your committee has deemed it proper, in the absence of our good Mayor, that I should say a few words in commendation of the enterprise and of encouragement to its patrons.

MORE GENEROUS SCALE.

"We do not have to look far to find an incentive for the fete which opens so auspiciously today. The very successful event of a year ago, held under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Elks, has been a wonderful inducement to try again on a grander and more generous scale. You have chosen a more beautiful site, the attractions are more select, and the arrangements more perfect and, with the knowledge gained by past experience, the fair of 1903 should far out-rival that of 1902.

ADVERTISING OAKLAND.

"The objects of the carnival of a year ago, were most worthy, and we believe that the same can be said of the carnival of today. Our city does not look for pecuniary gain, through these festivals, nevertheless, she does realize through them, what is worth far more to her than a few paltry dollars. She profits by the favorable advertising that she could gain in no other way. These functions give our home people something to think about, something to talk about, something to write about. They furnish our Board of Trade with material to advertise our city. In these and in other ways our city profits by her street fairs.

GOOD EFFORT OF LAST YEAR.

"I sincerely believe that the street fair of last year did more to draw the attention of outsiders to the immense importance and possibilities of Oakland than any half-dozen events of a decade past.

OAKLAND'S PATHWAY OF PROGRESS.

"When that fair opened its gates to the public, Oakland took a long step forward on the 'Pathway of Progress.' The outside world heard of us through that medium and awoke to the fact that we were alive and making an effort to make ourselves known. Since that time, our city has taken on new life. She has been forging ahead more rapidly than ever before. More people are seeking homes among us than ever before. Houses are being built in every direction. Massive and imposing business blocks are under way. Property values are going up and a general air of prosperity prevails all branches of business.

FUTURITY WILL SPEAK.

"While I do not, for one moment, feel that our street fair of a year ago was responsible for all these hopeful signs, I do believe that no small part of credit is due to the advertising that our city got through the untiring efforts of the gentlemen, who planned and managed the Elks' Street Fair of a year ago, and I sincerely predict that, twelve months hence, the same will be said of you gentlemen, the directors and managers of the Oakland Street Fair of 1903.

BENEFIT VS. INCONVENIENCE.

"That our people are in favor of a continuance of the custom is evidenced by the popular attendance and the patience with which they submit to the temporary blockading of our streets. They realize that their city is harvesting benefits that far outweigh the little temporary inconveniences.

HIGH PURPOSE OF CITIZENS.

"By these fetes, you gentlemen, have demonstrated what can be accomplished through organized effort and unity of purpose. Why cannot the same unity and zeal be carried into our municipal affairs? You, gentlemen, who are most interested in the success of this enterprise are the very class who should have our city's interest most at heart. You represent the bone and sinew, the brains and motive power of our city. You have created this holiday fete. You have brought your material from far and near. You have gone to immense expense, for what? Is it solely for the purpose of blarney and sale? Have you undertaken all this labor, that for a few short days, you may advertise your wares in attractive form and encourage a few quick sales, and then stop? I hope not! Why not go right along utilizing your splendid organization as a promotion bureau to advance our city's interest? It seems to me that you have a function to perform far greater, far nobler, than merely the direction of this street fair. It seems to me to be a schooling to stimulate you to unite in pushing your city ahead. Your fairs, are but incidents in the bustling progress of the round year.

KEY, EMBLEM OF TRUST.

"Now, gentlemen, I realize that you are impatient to get to work, and that you feel no restraint other than that which prudence and decency may dictate. It becomes my pleasure, acting for and on behalf of our absent Mayor and the people of Oakland to present to you the freedom of our fair city, and to place in your hands, Mr. Director-General, this key, the emblem of fidelity and trust, knowing full well that you will not abuse the privileges thus accorded to you."

Director General Schlueter then addressed Acting Mayor Dornin. He is a man of action and of very few words. To his interesting effort was due the grand result, which was attained in the opening of the fair and in a state of completion which has not been equalled on the coast. Mr. Schlueter spoke as follows:

"Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen: In behalf of the management of the Oakland Street Fair and Carnival Association, I accept as a key, the symbol of welcome to and freedom of the beautiful city of Oakland."

"This freedom, however, you have extended to our association in a more substantial manner than by the presentation of this time-honored symbol."

"You have opened wide the gates of this city to all the country round and bidden everybody welcome. At the same time, for the purpose of carrying out the idea of the association, namely to give the people an opportunity to amuse and instruct themselves in a noble way, we have placed at our disposal some of the choicest spots and principal thoroughfares of our beautiful city."

"For this courtesy, I desire to return thanks and to express the hearty appreciation of my colleagues and myself. We trust, which this kindness imposes, we appreciate and accept, and shall discharge it in a manner which shall return to your care this attractive plaza and these finely-located thoroughfares, in the same perfect condition in which we received them from your hands."

"We will leave nothing undone during the progress of this fair, to aid in the advancement of Oakland and show that we are in every way worthy of the confidence, which has been reposed in us."

PRESIDENT M'FEELY.

F. P. McFeely, president of the Oakland Street Fair and Festival Association, said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen:—In behalf of the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors and the stockholders of the Oakland Street Fair and Carnival Association, I wish to thank you cordially for your presence here today. The gentlemen who are the promoters of this street fair and carnival were encouraged in their efforts by the very great success of the street fair and carnival given by the local lodge of Elks, one year ago."

PRECEDENT.

"The great success which was accorded that street fair and carnival was the talk of the whole city of Oakland for several months after the fair had closed in a blaze of glory. The one reason for the success, which was instrumental in bringing that fair to a successful issue was 'When are you going to have another street fair and carnival?'"

CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT.

"Nothing in the way of a public undertaking in the City of Oakland had ever received the confidence and support of the people in so large a measure, and many thought the fair should be given again. But, owing to a recent law adopted by the Grand Lodge of Elks, the local lodges are prohibited from holding street fairs; so it could not be repeated under the same auspices as before. At the same time, the general management is the same as it was one year ago.

"Our director-general, Max Schlueter and his able assistants who have had full charge of the arrangements of this street fair and carnival have had the experience of last year's fair to guide them in this year's undertaking."

GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

"You, who are the judges, can see for yourselves that this fair is a great improvement over the last.

"Many new attractions in the way of exhibits and electric lighting have been added.

"All of the shows this year are, I am told, of a higher order than those of a year ago."

THE PRESS.

"The Press, not only of this city, but of San Francisco has been very generous in writing us up and encouraging us in our efforts to make this fair a success.

"The Merchants' Exchange, the Board of Trade, and the business men of Oakland and the surrounding cities and towns of Alameda County, as also many of the San Francisco merchants have been very liberal in their assistance.

"The Committee of Arrangements have done all in their power to make this street fair and carnival worthy of your support and patronage."

ENJOY YOURSELF.

"Many things have been provided for your entertainment. Come and enjoy yourselves. Bring your friends with you! Spend your money freely and have a good time."

"Don't forget the ladies, who are serving the refreshments. They are working diligently for the charity and aid societies of Oakland."

"Don't forget the 'Country Store' the proceeds of which go to the charities of the City of Alameda. At this store you can get more for your dime than you can at any other place in the State. Why? Because the goods cost nothing. They have all been donated by the merchants of San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda."

"Don't forget that this street fair and carnival is open for fun, very afternoon and evening up to and including the Fourth of July, the anniversary of the birth of our nation."

"Children, then sing, 'Come Home' and the final address was made."

SENATOR LUKENS.

Senator G. R. Lukens was greeted with cheers and spoke as follows:

"I am indeed glad to be one of this large and eager company of Oaklanders, big with the spirit of arrival and of joy, and to take part in formally opening the second Street Fair at Oakland."

"A sweep of the eye over this vast assemblage gathers at a glance the old and the young, the local and the visitor, the native and the foreigner, the merry and the joyous. The sad alone are absent. The surest testimony of this pleasant fact is the presence, especially of the children. This is children's day, by direction of the city fathers. This is not merely the day when the children are to be regarded most, but the day we can all regard ourselves as children—exuberant, glad, mad children, and in the true spirit of a glad, free child, I ask you to join your rejoicings with mine."

CAUSE, FOR REJOICING.

"Every circumstance about us jointly helps in rejoicing. This lay with its brilliant sunrise when it 'Rose, reddened, and is seething breast' Flickered in bounds, grey gold, then bled us in its 'twelve hours' treasure. Our skies are the kindest in all nature's great orbit; our locality the most favored in every season of the round year."

"This State to which we all give complete and hearty allegiance, bids us rejoice in its fortunate security as a sovereign unit of this supreme Republic, happy under the providence of wise laws and benign rulers. Let twice ten thousand throats acclaim the president and our Governor, and by their thunders proclaim perpetually honest and enlightened government in our city, State and nation, now enjoyed and forever to endure."

PLEASANT MEMORIES.

"This anniversary of the first Street Carnival at Oakland, with its wealth of pleasant memories, bids us rejoice. No mischief from fun ill-considered or no uncertainty of the past; no harm from accident, through want of care, clouds the memory of that great achievement. And today the assurance of an equal success is brought to us by the surest auspices, for we have at our head the same great director-general, Mr. Max Schlueter. Max, the big-hearted, Elks it is true, but Max, the staunch Oaklander, proud to work and win for fair Oakland and all her people sunshine in minutes, festive hours, carnival days."

GLAD HEARTS OF CHILDREN.

"And this innumerable army of children, big with the joy of the fair, glad hearts break from concealment and glow in their faces. Their fresh spirits expand and triumphantly assert the doom of sorrow and of strife. If I were asked what one thing chiefly this exhibition of the fair has done for its opening day of these myriad merry children typifies, I should say the happiness that rewards united effort."

UNITED OAKLAND.

"This Street Fair finds the true carnival spirit of hearty unbanded joy throughout because we are now in the pleasure of a people, helping, encouraging, strengthening each other and accomplishing results. And these glad children instinct with the merry boom of it all seal by their presence the perpetuity of a united Oakland, all pulling together and outstripping all."

"It is because of these things we celebrate again at this holiday season a Street Fair in Oakland, and I am charged by the management to give you their commands. Play out your fancies' fullest games, taste deep all the pleasure of this long recreation place, and bear with you forever after the recollection of a good time and the wish to have it come again."

The exercises closed by the immense audience singing, 'America!'"

The leader was a man who said his name was Baker, and that he was from Virginia. His face was familiar to most of the people and it is believed he is a resident of Wilmington, although some say he had been imported for the purpose of leading the mob.

Planned the Attack.

The lynching is believed to have been the result of a plot which was concocted several days ago and was to have been put into execution on Saturday night, but on that occasion there was a misunderstanding and the attempt failed. Early yesterday morning word was passed around that the attack was to be made on the prison at 10 o'clock last night, and that the men who were to participate were to meet at Price's corner, half an hour before that time. As a result of the reports, people flocked toward the work-house early in the evening, but the majority were there out of curiosity.

The Police department was advised during the day of the contemplated attack and thirty policemen were sent to the work-house at 8:30 last night.

There were several thousand persons at the prison at the time, and the officers were powerless against such large numbers, so they entered the building to assist the guards in an effort to protect the prisoner. Upon arriving at the work-house the mob advanced into the front vestibule or reception hall and demanded admittance to the jail. Their demand was refused by the guards and they were deluged with streams of water from the fire-fighting equipment of the institution. This did not lessen the eagerness of the hangers who immediately began an assault upon the iron doors. Chief of Police Black shouted to the crowd: "The first man that comes into the corridor will be killed."

Shots Were Fired.

A man grasped one of the heavy sledge hammers and as he attacked the steel grating cried: "Then you had better take me for the first one."

Another man shot out the cluster of incandescent lights in the vestibule. The mob and guards exchanged shots. In addition to Peter Smith, a young man whose name is not known, was slightly wounded.

The mob, after forcing an entrance notified Chief Black and Warden Meserve that they intended to get the negro if they had to break every steel door in the place, and argued that it was a useless expense to have unnecessary damage done to property. The officials saw the strength of this argument and informed the leaders that White was in cell No. 13 on the first row, third story. The door to this row of cells was at once attacked.

Got the Right Man.

Warden Meserve then rushed into the cell corridor to prevent the mob taking the wrong man. He saw that the men with hammers were about to demolish the cell door, and told them how to disconnect the door so that it could be operated. As soon as the door to White's cell slid open there was a deafening cheer and some cried: "Take him to the place where he murdered Miss Bishop, for we have driven a stake there and will burn him."

Fought for His Life.

White fought desperately for his life and knocked the first man who approached him down. One of the leaders of the mob threw his arms around the frightened wretch, thus protecting him. At this time the narrow corridor was so tightly packed that it was impossible to get the prisoner out. After much difficulty the crowd was persuaded to retreat from the building. White, in the custody of two men, brought up the rear. White's custodians became convinced that unless strategy was used, there would be little chance of getting their man to the spot on Price's road, where it was planned that he should be burned to death. This contingency was overcome by an order to extinguish lanterns or keep them concealed. In the darkness there was a confused rush and after this no one seemed to know where the prisoner was.

When White found that his case was hopeless he confessed to having committed the deed and prayed fervently to God to forgive his sins.

Praying and Confessing.

While White was praying and confessing, the crowd was struggling to form a circle, and some men began splitting rails with which to burn the wretch. Five thousand to six thousand persons surged back and forth, crowding and pushing to gain a good position from which to see the burning.

When everything seemed about ready a man on horseback, who said his home was in Kentucky, rode to a nearby farm-house for more straw. The straw was piled around the stake and White was brought into the circle. His nerve seemed good and he held his head up while he addressed the crowd. He made another confession and appealed to God for mercy. The negro was then fastened to the stake and the torch was applied to the straw.

An Awful Scene.

The flames leaped up the man's bare hands. He was held erect by one of the lynchmen until his clothing was burned, when he was pushed into the bed of the fire. He rolled about and his contortions were terrible, but he made no sound. Suddenly the ropes on his legs parted and he sprang from the fire and started to run. A man struck him on the head with a piece of fence rail and knocked him down. Willing hands threw him again into the flames. He rolled over several times but was promptly returned. While this was going on, shouts, cheers and jibes went up from the crowd.

When the negro had ceased to show signs of life, the body was placed on its back and fuel was piled upon it and a roaring fire was soon consuming it. It was about two o'clock when the crowd began to disperse.

At noon today Deputy Coroner Kilgore went to the scene of the lynching for the purpose of securing the remains of the negro in order to go through the legal form of holding an inquest, but according to the story of those who left the place an hour previous, there was little possibility of his finding anything substantial, as the relic-hunters had made off with the pieces of bones that were left.

KNAPP'S TRIAL HAS BEEN COMMENCED.

HAMILTON, Ohio, June 23.—The trial of Alfred Knapp for the murder of his wife began here today. Knapp was dressed in black and wore crepe. Lawyers Thomas Darby and John Thomas of Cincinnati represented Knapp, who seemed interested but not alarmed. Mr. Darby said that no objection would be
